

Please continue preserve the first amendment rights of companies like XM and allow them to broadcast local traffic and weather. Americans should have the choice between obtaining this information by both broadcast and satellite.